HELMARSHAUSEN LATIN GOSPELS (DYSON PERRINS COLLECTION)

The Cleveland Museum of Art will be the first Museum in the U. S. to exhibit the Helmarshausen Latin Gospels from the celebrated manuscript collection of C. W. Dyson Perrins. This important XII century Romanesque illuminated book was made in the Abbey of Helmarshausen, Germany and has been loaned by an anonymous private collector. The price paid for these Gospels was $109,200.00, a record price for a single manuscript in recent years.
